1099 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR ONBOARDING PACKET

PACKET OVERVIEW AND DISTRIBUTION INSTRUCTIONS

A Collaborative Behavioral Health Service Program

ACE Transitions operates through a contractual service arrangement between Transitions Legacy Center, Inc. (TLC) and Alase Center for Enrichment II, Inc. (ACE). ACE Transitions is a program/service brand and is not a separate employer unless otherwise stated in writing. The contractor's legal engaging entity will be identified based on position, credentialing status, and service assignment.

3 OFFICE VERIFICATION NOTES

1099 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR ONBOARDING PACKET

1099 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS ACKNOWLEDGMENT

1 CLASSIFICATION ACKNOWLEDGMENT

1. The undersigned candidate acknowledges that this packet is intended for onboarding as an independent contractor and does not create W-2 employee status unless a separate written employment agreement states otherwise.

Initials:

2. The candidate understands that independent contractor classification is governed by the actual service relationship, including control, independence, method of payment, tax responsibility, professional discretion, credentialing, and business operations.

Initials:

3. The candidate understands that the legal engaging entity may be Transitions Legacy Center, Inc. (TLC), Alase Center for Enrichment II, Inc. (ACE), or another written assignment based on role, payer credentialing, and contract routing.

Initials:

4. The candidate is responsible for maintaining any credential, license, certification, professional insurance, business registration, and tax records required for the assigned services.

Initials:

5. The candidate understands that ACE Transitions may decline onboarding, suspend service assignment, or terminate access if required documentation, background review, credential verification, or payer requirements are incomplete or unsatisfactory.

Initials:

2 TAX AND PAYMENT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

1. The contractor is responsible for federal, state, and local tax obligations arising from contractor compensation, subject to the written service agreement and any approved accounting/tax-remittance process.

Initials:

2. The contractor must provide a completed Form W-9 or other required tax documentation before payment processing when required by the legal engaging entity.

Initials:

3. No payroll withholding, unemployment withholding, employee benefit contribution, or workers compensation benefit is created by this onboarding packet unless a separate written employment agreement provides otherwise.

1099 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR ONBOARDING PACKET

CONFIDENTIALITY, HIPAA, AND PRIVACY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

1 PROTECTED INFORMATION AND CLIENT CONFIDENTIALITY

1. I will protect client, applicant, personnel, clinical, billing, Medicaid, referral, and agency information received through ACE Transitions, TLC, ACE, or any affiliated service process.

Initials:

2. I will not access, copy, photograph, download, disclose, discuss, post, or transmit protected information unless it is necessary for assigned duties and authorized by policy, law, or written direction.

Initials:

3. I will comply with HIPAA/HITECH, 42 C.F.R. Part 2 when substance-use-disorder information is involved, applicable North Carolina confidentiality requirements, and all agency privacy policies.

Initials:

4. I will immediately report any suspected privacy incident, lost device, misdirected email, unauthorized disclosure, credential compromise, or improper access to the designated program contact.

Initials:

5. I understand that confidentiality obligations continue after my service relationship ends.

Initials:

2 SECURE COMMUNICATION AGREEMENT

☐ I will use approved communication channels.

☐ I will secure passwords and devices.

☐ I will not send client SSNs or clinical records by unsecured group email.

MEDICAID DOCUMENTATION AND BILLING COMPLIANCE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

1 DOCUMENTATION AND CLAIMS INTEGRITY

1. I will document services accurately, timely, and only for services actually rendered by me or under my assigned responsibility.

Initials:

2. I will not create, alter, backdate, copy-forward, or submit documentation that misrepresents the service, duration, location, participant, provider, medical necessity, authorization status, or clinical content.

Initials:

3. I understand that services may require payer authorization, reauthorization, active credentials, active service orders, treatment plans, supervision, and supporting documentation before claims are submitted.

Initials:

4. I will cooperate with claim audits, chart reviews, corrective action, payer inquiries, overpayment review, and Medicaid compliance investigations involving services assigned to me.

Initials:

5. I will report suspected fraud, waste, abuse, billing irregularity, documentation concern, boundary violation, or conflict of interest through the designated reporting channel.

Initials:
